REV. SR. EMELINE CSST

Director, St. Teresa's College

For a long period of 12 years, her sure hand guided the institution. Though the going was not smooth, with her steady thoughts and mathematical precision, she prepared the staff and students to leap forward to the modernist trend in administration and education. She opened the windows of the college to newer ideas and started many new courses - post graduate course in Economics and two vocational courses viz. B.A. Communicative English and B. Sc. Computer Application (UGC Sponsored).

Participation in extra curricular activities was given equal importance as education. Empowerment of women was her motto and she encouraged students to venture into all areas where women could make a mark, and work towards self-realization. The Women's Cell was started in the college during her period.

An uncompromising and successful Principal, she was an incarnation of good will and optimism, of energy and hard work, of perfection and devotion. She was a charismatic person, and everything she did bore the imprints of that
